

Success Criteria Weather Forecast

	below	at	above
Keynote	No colour. No effects. Not enough slides or too many slides. Slides not in order. Heaps of spelling errors. Some place names on maps. No temp or wind information given.	Some colours used. Timing of effects too fast or slow. Very little spelling errors. Lots of place names or too many place names. Major cities missed out.	Awesome colour words and icons. Easy to read writing( Clear fonts). Excellent Icon effects. No spelling errors. Slides are colourful. Map needs names of the places. Highs and lows shown. Weather maps need to have patterns. Wind directions are given. Temperatures are given.
Script	Doesn't make sense.	Interesting adjectives and verbs in some parts. Plain language used. (Little boring.)	Inspiring words. Used heaps of describing words. Use heaps of verbs;pouring down. Introduce themselves. Goodbye. Type weather.Rainy , windy Weather for the whole day. Temperature is told.

	below	at	above
Presentation	Reading words only.	Beginning to use hands and body. No emotion , only reading words. Beginning to connect with the audience.	Clear loud talker. Using hands to point at the icons. Click the remote at the right time in the script. Ensure 2 teleprompters are set up so that eyes are on the side or at the front. Smiling, happy and cheerful at the right times. Connects with the audience. Includes humour.
Peer Assessment			